Introduction

The R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School places children and young people at the heart of their learning experience. We focus on the needs of those with significant and complex additional needs who may be “lost to learning”, at significant risk of exclusion or out of school with a placement difficult to establish. This group is commonly categorised as having “Special Educational Needs”.

It is important to recognise that at R.E.A.L Alternative Provision School we work with the needs of the whole child, not just the special educational needs of our young people. There are factors we consider that may not be categorised as Special Educational Needs such as:

- Disability
- Attendance and punctuality
- Health and Welfare
- Having English as an additional language (EAL)
- Being in receipt of pupil premium

- Being a looked after child
- Being the child of a service man/woman

We work with a range of children and young people for whom the learning experience has previously failed in either mainstream or special school. In order to reverse the identified pattern of failure, we promote a culture of respect alongside healthy and productive attitudes towards learning by developing an ethos of ambition and achievement, enabling each young person to achieve their potential. A key to the success of this approach is the value we place on the nurturing of quality relationships in building trust for productive learning experiences.

In our work we are truly committed to re-thinking engagement and approaches to learning through the recruitment of staff fully committed to “going the extra mile”. This is embodied in a team of experienced, skilled and enthusiastic professionals, fully focused on empowering young people to prepare for their long term aspirations through a solution focused – “can do” approach that will create realistic outcomes and appropriate pathways into adulthood, whether that be employment or further education.

We know that many young people and their families who engage with this approach initially have significantly poor self-esteem and aspirations. By providing a vibrant and progressive culture and climate of continuous innovation, we “raise the bar” on achievement and attainment, whilst building self-esteem, ambition and resilience.

We take an explicit, evidence-based approach to fostering the development of the emotional health and well-being of our learners, which we begin at induction. We draw on a range of approaches that have been shown to improve well-being and we integrate these into our work in both explicit and indirect ways. We see this as a core element of our work.

We are focused upon a commitment to improvement, based on continuous and consistent professional evaluation and analysis of our performance and current and future needs. To achieve this, we actively seek the participation of all stakeholders in striving to secure continued improvement.

This policy sets out some of the structures and strategies we have in place to support our aims.

Who is the policy for?

This policy refers to young people with special educational needs (SEN) with whom we work. It explains why and how R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School works with them. The guiding principle informing this policy is to ensure that young people with SEN and disabilities are given equal opportunities to fulfil their academic and personal potential and are enabled and encouraged to feel worthy and important members of the school society.

The Children and Families Act 2014 states that a child has special educational needs if he/she has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of children in the same age group or has a disability which either prevents or hinders him/her from making use of educational facilities of a kind generally provided for children of the same age group in mainstream schools within the local authority (LA). Special educational provision includes that which is additional to, or different from, the provision generally made for pupils of the same age.

Pupils with SEND supported by R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School could have difficulties with one or more of the following:

- Cognition and Learning
- Communication and Interaction
- Behaviour, Emotional, Social or Mental difficulties
- Sensory and/or physical needs

Aims

Our long term aim is to raise the aspirations of, and expectations for all pupils with SEN. R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School provides a focus on outcomes for our young people and not just hours of provision and support.

The aims of this policy are:

- To ensure that the school complies with the requirements of the Children and Families Act 2014 and the SEND Code of Practice 2014 (updated for 2016/2017), the Equality Act 2010 and other relevant statutory guidance and that these requirements are implemented effectively within the school.
- To ensure that every pupil with special educational needs
 - achieves their best
 - become confident individuals living fulfilling lives, and
 - make a successful transition into adulthood, whether into employment, further or higher education or training

- Report regularly to parents on their child's progress and on the implementation of the School's SEND policy..

Implementation

R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School has regard to all the requirements of the SEND Code of Practice 2014 (including arrangements made for 2016/2017). The SEND Code promotes a common and graduated approach to identifying, assessing and providing for pupils' special educational needs. The approach is a model of action and intervention to help young people who have SEN make, at the very least, adequate progress and successfully access the curriculum that is appropriate to their needs. It recognises that there is a continuum of SEN and that, where necessary, increasing specialist expertise should be brought to bear on the difficulties that a young person may be experiencing.

For most students who attend R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School, previous schools will have identified the student's SEND and a number of early intervention strategies will have been attempted. R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School will provide specialist support to meet the students' complex additional needs. Tutors are therefore expected to look carefully at differentiating their approach to meet the specific learning needs of each pupil. All tutors focus on personalising teaching and learning as well as regularly assessing the impact of specific interventions

Arrangements for coordinating the provision of education for pupils with special educational needs at the School who fulfils the role attributed to a school's SENCO. The Headteacher, together with the senior leadership team, coordinates and monitors the work of these Learning Managers.

A list of all teaching and support staff with training and experience in SEND is available on request from the HR Department.

Identification and Assessment

Identification of particular individual needs of pupils is a collaborative process between referrers, our referral and assessment team, Learning Managers, pupils and parents/carers, with additional expertise provided as and when appropriate from the School's Educational Psychologist, advisory staff for autistic spectrum disorders and for specific learning difficulties, the CAMHS team, speech and language therapy services, occupational therapy services and medical and nursing services.

- Identification and assessment of SEND is usually made ahead of referral to R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School.
- Referral information is provided at initial planning meetings; completed paperwork will give a pen picture of the pupil, risk management, EHCP and where possible previous academic history.
- On entry, baseline assessment information is gathered to evaluate the starting point for each student. This is usually, although not always, gathered by our referral and assessment team. There may often be a dip in attainment levels from those previously recorded due to the complex nature of the casework (i.e. if learners have been out of school for a significant length of time before coming on the roll of R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School)
- Learning Managers meet with all teaching and support staff to identify an appropriate personalised approach for each student.
- Parents/carers are encouraged to contact the Learning Manager if they have concerns about the progress of their child.

SEND Provision

Needs and provision for pupils with Education Health Care Plans (EHCP) are determined by the LA and are met through funding resources provided directly by the LA and from schools. When planning a programme of education for a child with an Education Health Care Plan, we make sure that it meets the requirements set out in the Plan. Person centred reviews are held in a way appropriate to the individual learner needs, to ensure maximum participation from learners in their plan.

All staff at R.E.A.L. Alternative Provision School are equipped to support pupils with SEND. All teachers and support staff receive in-service training in identifying and supporting pupils who require an education offer that is additional to and different from their previous experiences in mainstream or special education.

Staff help pupils with SEND to access a balanced and broadly based curriculum by:

- Helping them improve their skills in core subjects in a manner that suits their learning style and needs

Alternative Provision School recognises that parents/carers hold key information, knowledge and experience to contribute to the shared view of the best way to support behaviour and learning. The views of pupils and their parents/carers are heard and incorporated into the planning to meet their needs.

The overriding aim is to have a productive partnership with parents –
